"The Monthly Army Lists" of March, June, July, October and December, 1857, January, February, May, July, September, October and November, 1858, January, February, May, June, July, August, October, November and December, 1859, February, March, June, July, September, October and December, 1860, March, April, August and September, 1861, March, June, July and December, 1862, May, 1863, and February, August, September, October and December, 1864, August, 1865, January, 1866, February, 1867, January, February and August, 1868.

War Office, September 27th, 1872.

THE QUEEN has been graciously pleased to signify her intention to confer the Decoration of "The Victoria Cross" on the under-mentioned Officer, whose claim to the same has been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for an act of bravery performed by him when serving with the Looshal Expeditionary Force, as recorded against his name, viz.:—

Bengal Staff Corps.—Major (now Brevet Lieutenant Colonel) DONALD MACINTYRE.—

Act of Bravery for which recommended: For his gallant conduct at the storming of the stockaded village of Lalgnoora on the 4th January, 1872.

Colonel Macpherson, C.B., V.C., commanding the 2nd Goorkha Regiment, in which Lieutenant Colonel Macintyre was serving at the time as second in command, reports that this officer, who led the assault, was the first to reach the stockade (on this side from 8 to 9 feet high); and that to climb over and disappear among the flames and smoke of the burning village, was the work of a very short time. The stockade, he adds, was successfully stormed by this officer under fire, the heaviest the Looshals delivered that day.

Cl. 148.—Royal Warrant—Revised Schedules of Barrack Furniture, &c.

[The Schedules attached to this Royal Warrant may be had upon application.]

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS our principal Secretary of State for the War Department has submitted to us revised, corrected and amended schedules of barrack furniture, bedding, utensils, &c., for our Army, and whereas we have been pleased to approve the same;

Our will and pleasure is that these schedules shall be the sole and standing authority on the matters therein treated of, provided always that our said principal Secretary of State shall, until our further will and pleasure be made known, have power to make such modifications in the details of the schedules as may be necessary in the interests of our service. The administration and interpretation of the same shall likewise rest with our said principal Secretary of State.

Schedules Nos. 2 and 3 appended to our Warrant of 25th August, 1838, and also such portions of our said Warrant as provide for monthly inspections of barracks, are hereby cancelled.

Given at our court at Balmoral, this 16th day of September, 1872, in the 36th year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,

EDWARD CARDWELL.

FINANCE.

Cl. 149.—Outfit Allowance.

1. A non-commissioned officer granted a commission (except as riding master or quartermaster of a regiment of Cavalry) will be allowed 100*l.* in aid of his outfit, and if subsequently appointed lieutenant of a horse brigade of the Royal Artillery, or of a regiment of Cavalry, will be allowed a further sum of 50*l.*

2. A non-commissioned officer granted a commission as riding master or quartermaster of a Cavalry regiment will be allowed 150*l.* in aid of his outfit.

3. A schoolmaster promoted to be sub-inspector of Army schools will be allowed 100*l.* in aid of his outfit.

4. These allowances may be issued without previous reference to the War Office, and charged in the accounts in which the first charge of the officer's pay appears, vouched by proof of payment and a certificate that the officer has provided himself with the necessary outfit and paid for the same.

5. The certificate in the case of regimental officers will be signed by the officer commanding the regiment or corps, and in the case of sub-inspectors of Army schools by the Director General of Military Education.

6. Clause 117, Army Circulars, 1870, is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 150.—Married Establishment of Regiments in India.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular on 9th September, 1872.)

1. In future the married establishment of batteries, troops and companies serving in India will be kept entirely distinct from that of the depôts.

2. The married establishment authorized by the Indian Government for troops in India is as follows:—

All married staff serjeants and serjeants.

12 per cent. of trumpeters, drummers, and rank and file, calculated upon the establishment of the batteries, troops or companies serving in India.

The number of married men allowed on the "married roll" of the depôt is as shown in para. 1 of Clause 53, Army Circulars, 1871.

3. On the embarkation of a regiment for India any women on the married roll who may be left behind with their husbands in excess of the home establishment of the depôt, and any who may from time to time be sent home from India, will be considered as a part of the head-quarters married establishment of the regiment, and consequently will not create vacancies at the batteries, troops, or companies serving in India, as the families of such men will remain on the Indian married establishment chargeable against Indian revenues.

4. These families will be entered separately in the married roll forwarded to the War Office, and all expenses, including travelling at home, connected with them, will be chargeable against Indian revenues.

5. Para. 27 of Clause 53, Army Circulars, 1871, is cancelled, and para. 13 of that Clause is no longer applicable to regiments in India or their depôts.

Cl. 152.—Liability for Stores damaged on board Ship.

1. The Board of Admiralty have directed that when any government stores shipped on board a freight ship arrive at their destination in an apparently damaged state, the master shall immediately apply for a survey to be held by a competent officer approved by the consignee, and by a Lloyd's agent, if there be one available, from whom he will obtain a certificate, to be given to the consignee, stating whether the stores were or were not properly stowed, and whether injury has arisen from sea damage or any other cause. A duplicate of the certificate will accompany the receipted bills of lading, if any.

2. Shippers are liable for losses of, and damages to, government stores, arising,—1. From working and leaking of ships (unless there be proof of improper stowage or deficient dunnage); 2. From indifferent packages, and 3. From stormy weather, as it would be an underwriter's loss, if the cargo were insured.

3. Shipowners are liable for such losses and damages if they arise,—1. From the bursting or cracking of casks or cases caused by bad stowage, but not so if caused by shifting of cargo or in consequence of bad weather; and 2. From wilful damage or depredation.

Cl. 153.—Camp Equipment.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular, on 10th September, 1872.)

1. To prevent the great injury which arises from damp, mildew, &c., tents, blankets, nose-bags, sheepskins, canvas and leather buckets, and other canvas, linen, cotton, woollen, or leather articles which have become wet while in use, will be thoroughly dried, and cleaned as far as possible by the troops, before being returned into store.

2. Camp kettles, and other articles liable to injury from rust, will also be dried and cleaned by the troops before being sent into store.

3. When troops under canvas have to march on immediate orders, the Controller will confer with the officer commanding the troops as to the steps which should be taken for the drying and cleaning of the camp equipage prior to its being returned into store on the breaking up of the camp.

4. Controllers will bring to the notice of the officer commanding the troops any instance in which the camp equipage is not returned into store in a proper state, due allowance being made for fair wear and tear.

Cl. 154.—Supply of Valises.

1. The Infantry valise, at present supplied as an article of necessaries, will be transferred to equipment, and will in future be supplied among a soldier's accoutrements, under the following regulations.

2. Every recruit or transfer joining a regiment, or corps having the valise equipment, will receive a valise as a portion of his accoutrements; and such valise in the case of the man being discharged or becoming non-effective, will be dealt with under the same rules as accoutrements.

3. Men transferred from regiments and corps which have not yet been supplied with valises will have the option of disposing of the knapsacks belonging to them in any manner they think most advantageous, or of handing them over, if in a serviceable condition, to the regiment they are leaving. In the latter case the value thereof, which is to be ascertained by a Board of Survey, as directed by Article 120, "Revised Royal Clothing Warrant, 1865," will be paid to the man, and the knapsack will be taken on charge and disposed of as pointed out in the regulations above quoted.

4. When a regiment or corps has been supplied with Infantry valises, a Board of Survey will be held on the knapsacks in the men's possession; those pronounced to be serviceable will be sent to the Storekeeper Royal Army Clothing Depot, where they will be valued, and the result of the valuation communicated to the regiment by the director of clothing, who will authorize payment of the amount to the men. The un-serviceable knapsacks (i. e., those unfit for re-issue to recruits) will not be taken over under any circumstances: they will be disposed of for the benefit of the men in any manner which the commanding officer may direct. Should a man elect to dispose of his own knapsack he will be permitted to do so.

5. Valises in possession of regiments will be brought on charge in the equipment ledger as accoutrements, and such valises as have been paid for by the men will be purchased by the Government at a fair valuation, but soldiers who received valises as part of their free kits will be permitted to retain them as necessaries on the terms on which they were originally received should they prefer to do so, but they must keep them in repair at their own expense for the period the valises should last. When such valises are fairly worn out they will be replaced at the public expense.

6. All future demands for the supply or exchange of infantry valises will be made in the same way as those for accoutrements.

7. The period of duration of the valise is fixed at ten years, and any valises supplied free of charge that have been that time in wear will be exchanged, if unserviceable.

8. Valises will in future be marked with figures denoting the number of the regiment in white paint on the outer flap, at such distance below the bottom of the canteen, or mess tin, as will admit of the figures being seen when the mess tin is carried.

9. Valises of the old or first pattern issued with small flap will be marked on the front, immediately below the edge of the flap.

10. In regiments designated by two figures, viz., from 10th to 99th Regiment inclusive, one figure will be placed at equal distances on each side of the long black strap which passes over the flap of the valise, and each figure will be as near as practicable to the edge of the strap without being hidden, thus:—

11. In regiments designated by one figure, viz., from 1st to 9th Regiment inclusive, a smaller figure denoting the number of the battalion will be placed on the left of the strap and the regimental figure on the right, thus:—

12. In regiments designated by three figures, viz., from 100th Regiment upwards, the figure denoting the regimental number will be painted on a small black leather shield fitted to slide on the centre strap, thus:—

13. These shields will be supplied from store on requisition from the officer commanding.

14. A sample valise properly marked will be supplied to each regiment with the first issue of the valise equipment, and sample shields will in like manner be issued to those regiments to which they are applicable, but it must be understood that valises which have already been marked in accordance with Clause 126, Army Circulars, 1871, are not now to be re-marked.

15. An allowance of 1d. each will be granted for marking valises, the necessary paint being provided by the regiment.

16. The stencil plates already supplied will continue to be used except in the case of regiments with one figure, for which new plates will be supplied.

17. The canvas inside the outer flap of the valise will be also marked with the same marks as the accoutrements, in marking ink, by means of the types supplied. For this no allowance will be made, except in the case of the first issue of new equipment, when the allowance will be regulated as laid down in Clause 93, Army Circulars, 1871. Valises are reckoned as part of the 300 articles in the same way as other accoutrements.

18. Mess tins will continue to be dealt with as articles of necessaries, under the clothing regulations; but the use of mess tin covers with the valise equipment has been discontinued.

19. On discharge, or otherwise becoming non-effective, the men who have received a valise as a portion of their kit will have the option of taking away the valises, or if serviceable, of leaving them with the corps. In the latter case the value will be paid to the men according to the time the valises would last when re-issued as accoutrements; a certificate that the valises have been brought on charge in the equipment ledger being furnished to the paymaster before payment to the soldier is allowed.

20. Recruits who have not received a knapsack or valise, as a portion of their kit, will be entitled to a kit bag at the public expense.

21. Men who have received from the public the value of a knapsack or infantry valise at the time when it was taken over, will pay for a kit bag when issued to them.

22. Men who have received valises as part of their kits, and retain them as their own property, will not be supplied with kit bags at the public expense. If such men on discharge, or otherwise becoming non-effective, elect to leave the valise with the corps to which they belong, they must make their own arrangements for carrying away their kits.

23. Men transferred from a corps having the valise equipment to a corps carrying knapsacks will receive from their new corps a knapsack, complete, at the public expense, and will resign the valise. The valise will be brought on charge in the equipment ledger; but no compensation will be granted for it.

24. To enable such transferred men to carry their kits from their old to their new corps, they will, if not already in possession of a kit bag, be provided with a bag on loan from the regimental store, and commanding officers will take care that the bags so issued are returned to the regiment.

25. Spare kit bags for this purpose will be obtained from the Royal Army Clothing Depot and kept on the regimental account of necessaries. These bags will afterwards be kept for this service, and when worn out will be brought before a board of survey and condemned, application being made to the director of clothing for instructions as to their disposal.

26. Men to whom kit bags have been issued, either free or on payment, will be required to keep them in repair at their own expense.

27. Clauses 126 and 195, Army Circulars, 1871, are hereby cancelled.

Cl. 155.—Ornaments for Forage Caps.

1. Commanding officers of Infantry regiments and the Army Hospital corps are informed that after 1st April, 1873, no more numerals or badges for forage caps will be provided by the director of clothing, and that steps should be taken to obtain by regimental arrangement any forage cap ornaments that may be required after that date.

2. The actual cost of the cap ornaments supplied to recruits, which should never exceed the sum of 3d. for each recruit, will however be allowed, but a statement will be furnished quarterly to the director of clothing, showing the number of ornaments issued to recruits, in order that authority may be given to charge the amount in the regimental accounts.

3. Under no circumstances will any cap ornaments be provided until it has been ascertained by reference to the director of clothing that the store at the Army Clothing Department has been exhausted.

Cl. 156.—Window Blinds and Fixtures.

1. The supply, fixing and maintenance of all descriptions of window blinds, curtain rods, and brackets, and the washing of the window blinds, will, when duly authorized, be in future undertaken by the Royal Engineer Department, and the cost thereof charged to the vote for works.

2. Clause 213, Army Circulars, 1871, will still remain in force, but its provisions will be carried out by the commanding Royal Engineer.

Cl. 157.—Commuted Allowance in lieu of Fuel and Light at Home.

1. The rates of commuted allowance in lieu of fuel and light are as follows:—

ISSUE OF RAILWAY AND PASSAGE WARRANTS.

CL. 58.

1. Officers commanding, paymasters, adjutants, and others before issuing railway or passage warrants on behalf of the paymaster or adjutant of another corps, will apply to the officer commanding the corps concerned, for authority to do so, when the service will admit of the necessary delay.

2. When the service is urgent, and will not admit of a reference being made, the issue of the warrant will be noted on the route, furlough certificate, training notice, or other document of identity produced by the applicant, and will also be immediately reported by post to the paymaster or adjutant of the corps concerned.

3. When soldiers on furlough, and in a destitute state, apply for means of conveyance, paymasters, adjutants, and others will issue the smallest amount which will enable the soldier to subsist himself until orders can be received from his corps, if time will admit of a reference to the commanding officer of the corps concerned.

4. When delay is not possible, warrants will only be issued to convey the soldier back to his regiment or dépôt and not to the place to which he was proceeding on furlough, or elsewhere. The following words will be written on the face of the warrants in red ink:—

"For of regiment, returning from furlough, in regimentals."

5. The officers by whom warrants are issued will invariably select the most expedient and least expensive routes when these details are left to their discretion. They will specify on the warrants any particulars which may be necessary for the guidance of the soldiers, or of the officials of the railway or steam-boat companies.

6. When the conveyance of children is demanded, their ages will be stated in words on the face of the warrants.

7. Should any of the foregoing precautions be neglected, the issuer of the warrant will be responsible for any loss which may be incurred.

8. When a warrant issued by one paymaster has been made payable by another, and the latter does not think himself responsible for its settlement, he will not return it to the district paymaster who has paid it, but will communicate with the issuer, and when he has ascertained the responsible person, he will transmit the warrant to such person, and notify his having done so to the district paymaster, in order that the latter may know to whom he is to look for reimbursement.

9. In any case of obvious overcharge, or error of computation, the district paymaster who has admitted the same will be held liable for its correction, but not when the overcharge has arisen from causes over which he has had no control.

10. Whenever it may be necessary to effect any alteration in railway or passage warrants after issue, the person in charge, or the officer who should alter the warrant, will be held responsible for the alterations which it may be necessary to make during the performance of the service ordered, and will append his name instead of his initials to the alterations so made under his responsibility.

ISSUES OF STORES FOR "CAMPEQUIPMENT," AUTUMN MANŒUVRES, AND CAMPS OF INSTRUCTIONS.*Cl. 59.

1. When camp equipment is required by the Auxiliary Forces it will be demanded on W. O. Form 1182 if for the Autumn Manœuvres, on W. O. Form 775 if for Militia in standing camps, and on W. O. Form 1645 if for Volunteers at camps of instructions.

2. At the time of making the first issue, W. O. Book 422 will be given to the officer drawing the stores, by the commissary making the supply, and in this book the officer commanding the corps will record in the upper part of the account all articles received by him, and at the foot those returned by the corps.

3. At the close of this service the commanding officer will balance the account, and return it, with the vouchers in support of it and the whole of the stores remaining on hand, to the commissary at the dépôt to which the stores are returned.

4. The commissary will at once examine the account, and if correct annex it to his accounts. Should any questions arise, they will be decided by the controller after communication with the commanding officer.

5. In cases where the stores are not returned to the dépôt from which they were originally supplied, the commissary will take care to compare the document with the returns received from the issuing commissary, as directed by paragraph 5, Clause 56, Army Circulars, 1872.

PACKAGES FOR AMMUNITION.*Cl. 60.

As officers commanding Auxiliary and Reserve Forces become direct accountants to the War Office under Clause 2, Reserve Forces Circulars, 1872, the packages for ammunition will be accounted for in the annual returns rendered to the Controller, Royal Arsenal, through the district controllers.

INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING REQUISITIONS FOR, AND SUPPLY OF, W. O. FORMS AND BOOKS.*Cl. 61.

1. Applications for such W. O. Forms and books as are used by the Auxiliary and Reserve Forces will be made according to the following instructions:—

Forms for the disembodied Militia will be demanded on W. O. Form 796.

Books, on repayment, for the disembodied militia will be demanded on W. O. Form 794 in duplicate annually.

Forms for Volunteer corps will be demanded on W. O. Form 1637.

Books, on repayment, for volunteer corps will be demanded on W. O. Form 1636 in duplicate annually.

Forms for staff officers of Pensioners will be demanded on W. O. Form 499.

Forms for Yeomanry Cavalry will be issued from the War Office annually without requisition.

2. Requisitions for forms and books for the disembodied Militia will be transmitted to the War Office on and after 1st January of each year up to the date of assembly, and should include a sufficient supply for the regiment during the training, and for the permanent staff for the twelve months following the date of the requisition.

3. Requisitions for forms and books for volunteer corps will be made annually on 1st November in each year.

4. Requisitions for forms used by staff officers of Pensioners will be made on 1st March in each year.

5. The demands for forms will be based upon the consumption during the past twelve months, as shown in column 4 of the Demand Forms above quoted, the quantities of each form in possession at the date of making the demand being taken into consideration.

6. It is considered that careful attention to these instructions will render intermediate requisitions unnecessary, and at the same time prevent an accumulation of forms.

7. Any W. O. Form not included in the requisition, a supply of which, from exceptional causes, may be thought requisite, should be specially demanded in manuscript, and the W. O. number stated.

8. Any forms which do not bear W. O. numbers, but of which a supply from exceptional causes is deemed requisite, should not be demanded on the annual requisition, but on a separate document, and specimens of each form, numbered consecutively to agree with the demand, should accompany it.

9. The utmost care and economy should be observed in the use of all forms supplied by the War Office, as it is obvious that the supplies entail considerable expense on the public.

10. Requisitions for forms and books for Volunteer corps in administrative regiments will be made only by the officer commanding the regiment.

MILITIA.Cl. 62.—Barrack and Hospital Equipment.Barrack.

1. Barrack furniture, &c., required for Militia quarters (permanent staff) will be demanded in accordance with the scale printed in the Appendix. The number of rooms for which furniture may be demanded is as follows:—

For serjeant major	{ One sitting room. One sleeping room.
For quartermaster serjeant	{ One sitting room. One sleeping room.
For serjeants ...	{ One sitting room for every two serjeants. One sleeping room for each serjeant.
For orderly room...	{ One of each at head-quarters.
For guard room ...	{

2. In all instances the number of serjeants to be accommodated in quarters, and the number of rooms in such quarters, will be stated in the requisition.

3. When Militia are quartered in regular barracks they will draw the same stores as are allowed for regular troops.

Hospital.

4. Details of the equipment of a Militia hospital are printed in the Appendix.

5. All requisitions for the equipment of a Militia hospital will be calculated for a number of sick not exceeding  $2\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. of the force out for training, or the maximum number of six in hospital during any previous year (whichever number is greater), unless special reasons are given for an addition thereto.

6. As soon as the hospital arrangements for the training are made known, the requisition will be prepared by the medical officer, countersigned by the officer commanding, and transmitted by the latter to the commissary for execution.

7. The commissary, if unable to meet the demand from his own stores, will cause the 5th column of the requisition to be filled up and forward it to the district controller, who will order the necessary supply from the head-quarters or reserve store.

8. Expenses necessarily incurred for the conveyance of stores to and from the hospital, will be charged in the accounts of the control paymaster.

Cl. 63.—Militia Reserve.—Fraudulent Enrolment.

Men belonging to the Militia Reserve, who fraudulently enrol into any regiment of Militia other than that to which the reserve belongs, will be required to refund the sum of 1*l.*, in addition to the usual stoppage of 18*s.* 6*d.*, and will be struck off the strength of the Militia Reserve.

VOLUNTEERS.*Cl. 64.—Annual Returns.

1. As it is proposed that the Volunteer year shall for the present and future years terminate on the 31st October, instead of on the 30th November, commanding officers of such corps as may have completed their yearly drills should forward their annual returns as soon as possible after the 1st November.

2. For the purpose of completing the tale of yearly drills, those performed during November, 1871, may be counted if necessary for the current year, which will terminate on the 31st October.

Cl. 65.—Examinations of Volunteer Officers.

When an application for the examination of an officer of Rifle Volunteers is made under the provisions of § 4, Clause 31, Auxiliary and Reserve Forces Circulars, 1872, it should be accompanied (except in the case of the field officer commanding an administrative regiment or corps), by a certificate signed by the adjutant and countersigned by the commanding officer, that the candidate has been examined by them practically on parade in Parts 1, 2, and 3 of the Field Exercise and Evolutions of Infantry, and that they consider him prepared for official examination.

Cl. 66.—Musketry Instruction of Volunteers.

1. The adjutant of an administrative regiment of volunteers is responsible as pointed out in § 9, Clause 34, Auxiliary and Reserve Forces Circular, 1872, that the shooting of the volunteers is carried on in accordance with the musketry regulations for the Army except as regards the number of rounds to be fired in one day.

2. A further exception may be made to the rules laid down in the musketry regulations in the case of individual practice. Instead of the men of the squad firing in rotation, any two men may be called to the front by the officer superintending the practice and fire shot and shot alternately until they have completed their five rounds.

3. Clause 34, § 9, Auxiliary and Reserve Forces Circular, 1872, should be amended accordingly.

Cl. 67.—Serjeant Instructors of Volunteers.

1. In recommending the appointment of a serjeant instructor of volunteers, in addition to the information required by Article 207 of the Volunteer Regulations of 1863, it should be stated whether the candidate has gone through a course of instruction in the care and repair of the Snider rifle, and if he is in possession of a certificate as a certified armourer.

2. A recommendation for the transfer of a serjeant from the regular forces to the volunteers, will be accompanied by a "descriptive return," in addition to the documents prescribed in Article 207 of the above-mentioned regulations.

3. The allowances for the drill instructor of Artillery and Engineer Volunteers, specified in Articles 229 and 232 of the Volunteer Regulations of 1863, will for the future be charged in the mode prescribed for drill instructors of rifle volunteers in §§ 13 and 14, Clause 44, Auxiliary and Reserve Forces Circular 1872.

4. The last paragraphs of Articles 229 and 232 of the Volunteer Regulations of 1863, are hereby cancelled.

Cl. 68.—Examination of Snider Arms.

(Issued as a Special Auxiliary and Reserve Forces Circular, 6th September, 1872.)

1. The examination of the remaining half of the Snider arms (both long and short) issued to Rifle Volunteer corps, as well as of a portion of the arms issued to the Engineer Volunteer force, will be conducted during the ensuing autumn.

2. The arms of Rifle Volunteer corps to be examined will commence with those issued to the 1st East Riding Yorkshire Rifle Volunteer Corps, and end with those issued to the 23rd Middlesex Rifle Volunteer Corps. See Clause 25, Reserve Forces Circular, 1870.

3. The arms of the following corps of Engineer volunteers will also be examined, viz.:—

1st Devon Engineer V.C.

1st Flint " "

1st Gloucester " "

1st Hants " "

1st Lanark " "

1st Lancashire Engineer V.C.

1st Middlesex " "

2nd Yorkshire, W.R. " "

5. All Snider arms will be examined once in every three, instead of once in every two years; paragraph 8 of Clause 24, Reserve Forces Circular, 1870, is accordingly cancelled.

AUXILIARY, &amp;c. CIRCULARS—continued.

CL. 69.—Storage of Ammunition of Volunteer Corps.

(Issued as a Special Auxiliary Forces Circular, on 3rd September, 1872.)

Representations have been made to the secretary of state that the breech-loading cartridges of certain volunteer corps are stored in private magazines in the same masonry compartment as loose gunpowder, notwithstanding the instructions conveyed in paragraph 2, Clause 13, Auxiliary and Reserve Forces Circulars, 1872. Any cartridges so stored, whether in magazines belonging to corps or in those of private individuals, must be at once removed.

ARMY RESERVE—ENROLMENT CERTIFICATE.*CL. 70.

With reference to § 5, Clause 9, Reserve Forces Circular, 1870, and § 10, Clause 41, Reserve Forces Circular, 1871, staff officers will in future enter legibly on the enrolment certificate (W. O. Form 65) the previous service in the regular Army of men on enrolment for, or transfer to, the First Class Army Reserve.

DOCUMENTS OF ARMY RESERVE.*CL. 71.

1. Staff officers of pensioners are reminded that the greatest care should be taken of the documents referred to in paragraph 11, Clause 41, Reserve Forces Circular, 1871, connected with men belonging to section C., Clause 1, Army Reserve.

2. They will report at once to this department the names of those men for whom the documents in question have not been received from the regiments from which they have been transferred; and also of those men whose documents are incomplete, with the necessary particulars.

2. The scale of pay, subjects of examination, scale of pension, limits of age, &c., are given in the Appendix to this Circular.

3. Notifications of vacancies will, from time to time, be made known to the various staff officers of pensioners in whose districts they arise.

4. A list of the names of eligible candidates will be kept in all pension districts, and on the receipt of the notifications of vacancies staff officers will, within one week, forward to this department the name of the candidate most eligible for the appointment.

5. Men who may obtain appointments under the Post Office will continue to receive their daily pay as members of the Army Reserve, and also the annual allowance for necessaries, in addition to their pay as rural post messengers, but in any case in which an Army Reserve man may become entitled to Army pension it must be understood that he will not be allowed to receive a pension from the Post Office in addition to such Army pension.

6. The legal liability of members of the 1st Class Army Reserve, who may be employed as rural post messengers, to attend for training and exercise, if called upon to do so, and also to return to the colours, will still remain.

7. Staff officers of pensioners will be so good as to make the foregoing information generally known amongst the members of the 1st Class Army Reserve.

ERRATUM IN CLAUSE 13, AUXILIARY AND RESERVE FORCES CIRCULAR, 1872.

Officers commanding, in recommending medical officers for leave of absence on private affairs, will be careful to ascertain that the distribution and state of health of their corps, as well as the arrangements for the carrying on of all regimental medical duties, are such as to justify their recommendation.

G.O. 82.—Army Reserve.

O. 90 of 1868, 95 of 1870, and 24 and 63 of 1871, is to be resumed in all cases in which soldiers, qualified for transfer to that force, can satisfy their commanding officers that they will be in a position to earn a livelihood, if permitted to leave the regular army.

Para. 429 to be revised as follows:—

429. With a view to the detection and apprehension of deserters, commanding officers of regiments and depôts at home and abroad and inspecting field officers of recruiting districts, are to transmit to the Editor of the "Police Gazette, Police Court, Bow Street, London, W.C.," a descriptive report of every deserter, on W.O. Form 88, giving the fullest information possible, in order that the same may be inserted in the Police Gazette, which paper is sent to the head-quarters of every regiment at home, and to inspecting field officers of recruiting districts, free of expense. In those instances which present good grounds for supposing men to have deserted, these reports shall be rendered within twenty-four hours after their absence has been discovered; but in no case should they be delayed beyond five days. Absconded recruits who have received pay should be returned as deserters on Form 88, but recruits who have only received enlisting money should not be included in those returns, as they cannot legally be proceeded against as deserters. Duplicates of these returns are also to be sent (on W.O. Form 88a) to the superintendent of police, or police constable, of the parish to which the man belongs.

The returns transmitted to the editor of the Police Gazette should be franked in the left-hand corner of the address by the commanding or other officer, in order that they may be delivered free.

Paras. 430 and 431 are cancelled.

Para. 432 to be amended by substituting "Adjutant General," Horse Guards, War Office, for "Secretary of State for War." (3rd line), and W. O. Form 88a, for W. O. Form 88.

Para. 433 to be revised as follows:—

433. When a soldier, serving in any corps, confesses that he is a deserter from some other corps, he is to be dealt with in accordance with the 46th Article of War.

Para. 434 to be amended by substituting "Adjutant General, Horse Guards, War Office," for "Secretary of State for War" in the last sentence.

G.O. 86.—Returns.

With reference to paragraphs 1210 and 1311 of the "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army," it is hereby notified that the copy of the embarkation and disembarkation returns of regiments and detachments hitherto furnished to the Under Secretary of State for War, is no longer required, and may be discontinued from the present date.

By command,

Recruiting.By Authority.*THE ARMY AND ITS ADVANTAGES.Terms on which Young Men are invited to join Her Majesty's ForcesINFANTRY.

A soldier who enlists in the Infantry engages to serve for 12 years, the first 6 years in the Army and the last 6 years in the Reserve.

The pay of an Infantry soldier while serving in the Army is 1s. 2d. a-day, with an additional 1d. "beer money."

Lodging, bedding, fuel and light are supplied free.

Good food is provided at less than cost price; at home, a daily ration, consisting of 1lb. of bread and  $\frac{1}{2}$ -lb. of meat, is supplied to soldiers for 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., which is stopped from their pay; in the colonies, 1lb. of bread and 1lb. of meat is supplied for 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

The soldier on first joining is clothed, and provided with brushes, razors, and all other necessaries, free of charge.

He is afterwards supplied annually with the principal articles of clothing; but is required to provide himself with some of the smaller articles, such as shirts and socks, and to keep up his supply of brushes, &c., at his own cost; these are furnished at a low price by Government; and the total expense to which he is put on this account does not, on an average, amount to a penny a-day.

In case of sickness, medical treatment in hospital, with proper food, &c., is provided for a stoppage of 10d. a-day from the soldier's pay.

By good conduct a soldier may obtain an increase to his pay of 1d. a-day after 3 years' service; and if he can read and write, and is deserving, he has every prospect of promotion to be non-commissioned officer, with a further increase of pay.

When a soldier is transferred to the Reserve for the last 6 years of his engagement, he receives 4d. a-day, in return for which he is liable to be drilled occasionally; the times of training and exercise will, however, be so arranged as to interfere as little as possible with his trade or occupation; he is also liable, in case of imminent national danger or of great emergency, to be recalled to service in the Army.

A soldier has no right to remain in the Army for more than 6 years, but the privilege of remaining in it for the whole 12 years will be allowed to such men as may be specially recommended by their commanding officers.

A soldier permitted to remain in the Army for the whole 12 years, if he has conducted himself well and is fit, may be allowed to re-engage, to complete 21 years' service; after which he will, on discharge, become entitled to a pension for life, varying from 8d. to 2s. 6d. a-day, according to his rank and service.

After completing 21 years' service he may apply to be allowed to remain for a further period in the Army. If his application be granted he will continue to serve as a soldier; and will be allowed to claim his discharge at any time, at the expiration of 3 months from the date of his giving notice to his commanding officer of his wish to leave the service.

During his extended service he may earn increased good conduct pay at the rate of—

2d. a-day after 6 years' service.

4d.	"	"	18	"	"
5d.	"	"	23	"	"
6d.	"	"	28	"	"

If recalled to service in the Army from the Reserve, a soldier will receive full daily pay, and the time he has served in the Reserve will reckon towards good-conduct pay, as if he had served continuously in the Army; and, if at the end of his limited engagement he re-engages, the time he has served in the Reserve will count year for year towards pension on discharge.

CAVALRY, ROYAL ARTILLERY AND ROYAL ENGINEERS.

A soldier who enlists in the Cavalry, Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers, engages to serve for 12 years in the Army; at the end of which period, if he has conducted himself well and is fit, he may be allowed to re-engage to complete 21 years' service, after which he will, on discharge, receive a pension for life, varying from 8d. to 2s. 6d. a-day, according to his rank and service.

The daily pay of a soldier in the Cavalry is 1s. 5d., in the Royal Artillery 1s. 5½d., and in the Royal Engineers 1s. 4½d., with an additional 1d. "beer money" in each case.

A soldier in the Royal Engineers receives, in addition to his ordinary pay, extra "working pay," generally varying from 1s. to 2s. a-day, according to the nature of the work on which he is employed, and his qualifications; trained artificers and good workmen are, however, alone accepted as recruits for the Royal Engineers.

Soldiers in the Cavalry, Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers receive the same advantages as regards lodging, food, clothing, medical treatment, good conduct pay and extension of service as have been described as given to soldiers in the Infantry.

ALL ARMS.

In addition to the advantages already explained, canteens are established in which a soldier can buy beer, tobacco and other articles at cheaper rates than elsewhere. He has the benefit of a regimental school, in which he may get a sound and useful education; the use of a library, and recreation room; and, in most places, other means of amusement. In many places he has time and opportunities given him to learn a trade, by which he may earn money whilst in the Army, and be the better prepared for gaining his livelihood when he leaves the service.

If wounded in action, or in any way maimed in the performance of his military duties, he becomes entitled to a pension.

A deserving soldier, on his discharge, is well fitted, from his regular habits, for many situations—such as those in the police, on the railroads, or other employments in civil life—and a good character on discharge from the service gives him the best testimonial for such employment.

As an additional inducement to good men to join Her Majesty's service, advantages are given to soldiers who on leaving the Army may wish for employment in the Civil Service, and to soldiers in the Reserve who wish for employment as country post-office messengers.

There are few callings in civil life open to unskilled labour which promise to a steady and deserving young man such advantages as are offered to a soldier in HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE.

HORSE GUARDS, WAR OFFICE,
12th March, 1872.

FOREIGN ORDERS.

The attention of Officers is drawn to the following REGULATIONS which are those now in force respecting FOREIGN ORDERS and are to be strictly adhered to.

1. No subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING MEDALS

GRANTED FOR ACTS OF BRAVERY IN SAVING LIFE.

THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF having sanctioned Medals granted for acts of bravery in saving life being worn in Uniform, whenever a Society may consider any officer, non-commissioned officer or soldier entitled to receive a Medal, the decoration, together with a statement of the act of bravery performed, should be sent to the Adjutant General to the Forces, in order that the recipient's name may be registered, and the necessary authority issued for the distinction to be worn.

These Medals will be worn on the Right Breast.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN MEDALS.

148

1. Applications for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Any British subject is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the decoration of a Foreign Order, bestowed by competent authority for acts of bravery in saving human life. An officer, soldier, marine or sailor must, however, first obtain permission from the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

The periodical circulation of magic lantern slides and diagrams from station to station during the winter months, which has hitherto been prescribed by general orders, will be discontinued, but commanding officers, on application to the Director General of Military Education, can obtain the use of any set of slides or diagrams which officers, schoolmasters or others desiring to lecture may require.

G.O. 88.—Staff College.

The subjoined list, showing the result of the recent examination for admission to the Staff College, held under the direction of the Director General of Military Education, is published for the information of the Army.

G.O. 89.—Leave of Absence.

Sub lieutenants will be required to serve ten months with their regiments before they are granted leave of absence on their private affairs, except under very special circumstances, as they have already had two months' leave on appointment.

G.O. 90.—Mess Subscriptions.

Paras. 290, 291, and 294 of Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army," are to be altered as follows:—

290. All officers, except sub lieutenants, will pay to the regimental mess fund, on appointment, a contribution, to be fixed at the discretion of the commanding officer, but not to exceed thirty days' pay. This contribution is to be charged in ten monthly instalments of three days' pay on the original net pay of each officer's rank, and not on the increase resulting from length of service, brevet rank, or appointment as adjutant, or musketry instructor. Lieutenants will become liable to pay the contribution on being finally posted to regiments.

291. When an officer is promoted in his regiment, or when the pay of a lieutenant is increased, after three years' service in that rank, he is to pay, in like manner, a sum not exceeding the difference between thirty days' pay of the rate attained and that previously received. If he be removed in the same rank, or promoted to another regiment, he is chargeable with the whole amount of contribution in the regiment to which he exchanges or is transferred or promoted, but he is not to be charged with payment to the mess fund of his former corps beyond the month during which his removal has taken place.

294. All officers (including sub lieutenants) on the strength of a regiment, whether present or absent, are also to pay an annual subscription at the discretion of the commanding officer, but not to exceed eight days' pay of their regimental rank, to defray the ordinary current expenses of the mess; this subscription is to be charged in quarterly payments in advance from the date of appointment. The rates will be calculated in the same manner as laid down for contributions in para. 290, except that lieutenants of three years' service and upwards will pay at the increased rate fixed for lieutenants of three years' service. No officer on leaving his regiment is to be charged with regimental subscriptions beyond the date of his name appearing in the gazette, or that on which the notification is received at the regiment, should he be actually serving with it at the time.

G.O. 91.—Courts Martial.

When a general court martial shall direct its sentence of penal servitude to commence (under the 188th Article of War) at the expiration of any other sentence of imprisonment or penal servitude under which the offender may be at the time, the day upon which such penal servitude is to commence is to be specified in the sentence of the court.

To enable the court to specify such day, it shall, upon proof that the prisoner is already under any sentence or sentences, obtain evidence as to the date or dates of the expiration thereof.

G.O. 92.—Discharges.

Referring to G.O. 58 of 1870, and G.O. 22 of 1871, soldiers of the cavalry and line (except prisoners) arriving from abroad for discharge will be sent to Netley, to which place the discharge dépôt has been removed.

G.O. 93.—Schools.

As it is very desirable that the documents connected with soldiers transferred to the Royal Military Asylum, as students or pupil teachers, should be forwarded without delay to the Commandant of that establishment, upon the result of the examination for admission to these schools being notified, officers commanding regiments or dépôts are requested to transmit the under-mentioned documents, not later than the day fixed for the men to join, viz.:—

Medical history sheet,

Defaulter sheet,

No. 1 report,

Recruiting.By Authority.*THE ARMY AND ITS ADVANTAGES.Terms on which Young Men are invited to join Her Majesty's Forces.INFANTRY.

A soldier who enlists in the Infantry engages to serve for 12 years, the first 6 years in the Army and the last 6 years in the Reserve.

The pay of an Infantry soldier while serving in the Army is 1s. 2d. a-day, with an additional 1d. "beer money."

Lodging, bedding, fuel and light are supplied free.

Good food is provided at less than cost price; at home, a daily ration, consisting of 1lb. of bread and  $\frac{3}{4}$ -lb. of meat, is supplied to soldiers for 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ d., which is stopped from their pay; in the colonies, 1lb. of bread and 1lb. of meat is supplied for 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

The soldier on first joining is clothed, and provided with brushes, razors, and all other necessities, free of charge.

He is afterwards supplied annually with the principal articles of clothing; but is required to provide himself with some of the smaller articles, such as shirts and socks, and to keep up his supply of brushes, &c., at his own cost; these are furnished at a low price by Government; and the total expense to which he is put on this account does not, on an average, amount to a penny a-day.

In case of sickness, medical treatment in hospital, with proper food, &c., is provided for a stoppage of 10d. a-day from the soldier's pay.

By good conduct a soldier may obtain an increase to his pay of 1d. a-day after 2 years' service; and if he can read and write, and is deserving, he has every prospect of promotion to be non-commissioned officer, with a further increase of pay.

When a soldier is transferred to the Reserve for the last 6 years of his engagement, he receives 4d. a-day, in return for which he is liable to be drilled occasionally; the times of training and exercise will, however, be so arranged as to interfere as little as possible with his trade or occupation: he is also liable, in case of imminent national danger or of great emergency, to be recalled to service in the Army.

A soldier has no right to remain in the Army for more than 6 years, but the privilege of remaining in it for the whole 12 years will be allowed to such men as may be specially recommended by their commanding officers.

A soldier permitted to remain in the Army for the whole 12 years, if he has conducted himself well and is fit, may be allowed to re-engage, to complete 21 years' service; after which he will, on discharge, become entitled to a pension for life, varying from 8d. to 2s. 6d. a-day, according to his rank and service.

After completing 21 years' service he may apply to be allowed to remain for a further period in the Army. If his application be granted he will continue to serve as a soldier; and will be allowed to claim his discharge at any time, at the expiration of 3 months from the date of his giving notice to his commanding officer of his wish to leave the service.

During his extended service he may earn increased good conduct pay at the rate of—

2d. a-day after 6 years' service.

3d.	"	"	12	"	"
4d.	"	"	18	"	"
5d.	"	"	23	"	"
6d.	"	"	28	"	"

If recalled to service in the Army from the Reserve, a soldier will receive full daily pay, and the time he has served in the Reserve will reckon towards good-conduct pay, as if he had served continuously in the Army; and, if at the end of his limited engagement he re-engages, the time he has served in the Reserve will count year for year towards pension on discharge.

CAVALRY, ROYAL ARTILLERY AND ROYAL ENGINEERS.

A soldier who enlists in the Cavalry, Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers, engages to serve for 12 years in the Army; at the end of which period, if he has conducted himself well and is fit, he may be allowed to re-engage to complete 21 years' service, after which he will, on discharge, receive a pension for life, varying from 8d. to 2s. 6d. a-day, according to his rank and service.

The daily pay of a soldier in the Cavalry is 1s. 5d., in the Royal Artillery 1s. 5½d., and in the Royal Engineers 1s. 4½d., with an additional 1d. "beer money" in each case.

A soldier in the Royal Engineers receives, in addition to his ordinary pay, extra "working pay," generally varying from 1s. to 2s. a-day, according to the nature of the work on which he is employed, and his qualifications; trained artificers and good workmen are, however, alone accepted as recruits for the Royal Engineers.

Soldiers in the Cavalry, Royal Artillery and Royal Engineers receive the same advantages as regards lodging, food, clothing, medical treatment, good conduct pay and extension of service as have been described as given to soldiers in the Infantry.

ALL ARMS.

In addition to the advantages already explained, canteens are established in which a soldier can buy beer, tobacco and other articles at cheaper rates than elsewhere. He has the benefit of a regimental school, in which he may get a sound and useful education; the use of a library, and recreation room; and, in most places, other means of amusement. In many places he has time and opportunities given him to learn a trade, by which he may earn money whilst in the Army, and be the better prepared for gaining his livelihood when he leaves the service.

If wounded in action, or in any way maimed in the performance of his military duties, he becomes entitled to a pension.

A deserving soldier, on his discharge, is well fitted, from his regular habits, for many situations—such as those in the police, on the railroads, or other employments in civil life—and a good character on discharge from the service gives him the best testimonial for such employment.

As an additional inducement to good men to join Her Majesty's service, advantages are given to soldiers who on leaving the Army may wish for employment in the Civil Service, and to soldiers in the Reserve who wish for employment as country post-office messengers.

There are few callings in civil life open to unskilled labour which promise to a steady and deserving young man such advantages as are offered to a soldier in HER MAJESTY'S SERVICE.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING MEDALS

GRANTED FOR ACTS OF BRAVERY IN SAVING LIFE.

THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF having sanctioned Medals granted for acts of bravery in saving life being worn in Uniform, whenever a Society may consider any officer, non-commissioned officer or soldier entitled to receive a Medal, the decoration, together with a statement of the act of bravery performed, should be sent to the Adjutant General to the Forces, in order that the recipient's name may be registered, and the necessary authority issued for the distinction to be worn.

These Medals will be worn on the Right Breast.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN MEDALS.

148

1. Applications for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Any British subject is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the decoration of a Foreign Order, bestowed by competent authority for acts of bravery in saving human life. An officer, soldier, marine or sailor must, however, first obtain permission from the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

FOREIGN ORDERS.

The attention of Officers is drawn to the following REGULATIONS which are those now in force respecting FOREIGN ORDERS and are to be strictly adhered to.

1. No subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.
